TOP 6 REASONS TO CHOOSE PBXACT

Fully Featured

Out of the box, PBXact comes with everything you need, including IVRs, custom Music on Hold, full call control features, contact center features, global language support, CRM integration, call recording, click-to-dial, and more.

Remote Worker Friendly

Desktop and mobile clients provide video conferencing, screen-sharing, and presence control, as well as web-based user dashboards offering conference rooms, voicemail, call control, and customizable contact center wallboards for customer service needs. IP phone auto-provisioning enables users to quickly set up their own phones just by plugging them into an Internet connection.

Easy Deployment

Expedite installation with a QuickStart Wizard and automatic provisioning of IP phones using the EndPoint Manager tool that includes firmware and programmable phone button control. Integrated sign-up and auto-configuration of SIPStation SIP trunking gets you up and running with VoIP service in no time.

Compatibility & Integration

Based on open source technology, PBXact supports open SIP standards, 20 different manufacturers, and over 300 models of phones. This means you're not locked into a single vendor. Plus, web-based CRM support ensures your sales and support teams are delivering the best customer service.

End-to-End Solution

PBXact systems are designed to automatically integrate the complete range of Sangoma product lines (telephony cards, SBCs, VoIP gateways, and more), creating a truly end-to-end solution for all business sizes.

Scalable

PBXact is integrated with a self-serve online store to instantly add enhanced features like advanced recovery which provides automatic failover of your communications to a secondary PBXact system in the case of a catastrophic failure. With so many appliance and software options, PBXact is futureproof.
